COMMUNITY MEMBERS APPOINTED TO KUNDABUNG RESERVE TRUST

Minister for Lands, Tony Kelly, has announced the reappointment of community members to manage a recreation reserve in the Kempsey district.

“I congratulate Thomas Freeman, Michelle Hogan, Maree McKibbin and Beth McMillan on being re-appointed to the Kundabung Public Recreation Reserve Trust.

“I am also pleased that Jennifer Wiseman has been appointed to the trust.

“The reserve is used for community recreation and a playground, and the trust also manages the Kundabung hall and tennis courts”, Mr Kelly said.

Duty MLC for Oxley, Kayee Griffin, said the Rees Government is very grateful for the efforts of all the trust members who help manage some of the 33,000 Crown reserves across NSW.

“Around 750 reserves are looked after by community volunteers, who help care for valuable local infrastructure such as public halls, parks and reserves, swimming pools and smaller sportsgrounds.

“Backed by the skills, experience and enthusiasm of trust members, the NSW Government is working hard to protect important community assets and encouraging people to use them.

“I encourage people to seriously consider getting involved with a local trust”, Ms Griffin said.

Mr Kelly said trust members are also eligible for the annual Lands Crown Reserve Trust Award which recognises the important work trust members do for the community.
